

Go Metals Announces Director Changes

Vancouver, BC, December 5, 2023 – Go Metals Corp. ("Go Metals" and/or the "Company") (CSE: GOCO) announces that Mr. Adrian Smith has resigned from the Board of Directors and Mr. Harley Slade has been appointed in his place effective immediately. The Company wishes to thank Mr. Smith for his dedicated service on the Board of Directors.

Mr. Slade is currently President of Caveman Exploration, a company focused on providing exploration services in Canada. He first started working with Go Metals in 2018 and has since worked on company projects in both the Yukon and Quebec. Mr. Slade holds a degree in Geology from Simon Fraser University.

Scott Sheldon, CEO of Go Metals states, "I have known Harley for over 5 years, first meeting him when we were working in BC. He is one of the champions of the HSP project and has been helping further academic study of the HSP anorthosite complex. Harley's appointment to the Board is a step towards our commitment to HSP over the next few years."

About Go Metals

Go Metals targets Canadian battery metal projects to help power a sustainable future. The Company's flagship HSP project has multiple nickel-copper sulphide targets within a 400 square kilometre land package north of Havre-Saint Pierre, Quebec in the Nitassinan of the Innu of Ekuanitshit.

The HSP and KM98 properties host multiple magmatic sulphide targets within a potential new nickel belt spanning hundreds of kilometres across the Havre-Saint-Pierre anorthosite complex in the Grenville Province.
